the victory list shows that there are quite enough men "re-elected" in Belleville. The strength of the Conservative woman vote in this riding is considerable, but it would be very gratifying if the Conservative women were organized.

The feasibility of such organization has been amply proven and several examples have been furnished in preceding ridings. Pardon has a flourishing women's political organization and the Conservative convention at Ploverland recently by 102 women delegates represented when their names were called.

It should be borne in mind that the importance of the votes cast in the riding counts for the election measured by the yardstick of local interests. Instead they wield an influence that is heavily felt at Ottawa and the psychological effect is, perhaps, as great a power to be reckoned with as the vote of a good showing, as the numerical strength shows.

The expression "party loyalty" and "party unity" should be spoken of in their meaning and political expression of faith and political activity should be synchronous.

The political premium
"the best shot in the gun" does not apply to politics—not during campaigns at least—and this knowledge should encourage the men and women of Belleville in their faith in this riding to more active co-operation and more spirited missionary work.

It is a democratic community, a democratic colleague. To hesitate to enter political campaign, but prominence is a paramount virtue.

AN ELASTIC WOMAN
(Londanap News)

Of course, possibly it is a word that is not used to define. There, prices and taxes may all be perfectly narrowly defined through the elastic nature, because conforming to economic and industrial conditions, conditions at the time. Those conditions, say, may be normal in the sense that the money was at the time possible.
But what all looked for, and still look for, is a better range of prices.
High prices being probably the cause unpleasant against which the principal problem was made. Considering the world-shaking experience through which the world has passed, it may be that our recovery is going forward as rapidly as could be reasonably expected.

ESTRANGED SYMPATHY
(London Telegraph)

Apart from the few fanatic who have made a fetish of the recognition of formal relationships with Russia,
the overwhelming feeling of the public sympathy is for Germany, favorable to the Bolsheviki campaign against religion and religion in general has killed the last of that sentiment, such as it was. The practical reasons which used to be adduced to support it, based upon the idea that Bolshevism, for better or worse, had established itself as a permanent regime, have dissolved in the more shrewdly in face of the plain facts.

PASSING COMMENT

The voters of Switzerland appear to know their duty as leaders in the fourth trade that visits that small country purely on pleasure.

Influences of the past four years. On the heels of 1920 per cent. 1921, the high tide of the war was reached during the war period when 192 per cent. stage was reached. The lowest stage since the war was reached in 1922-1923 per cent.

The figure in April, this year, was 162 per cent. There is no leading line, however, that the recent rise will continue unless costs are further increased by lingering inflation. It is estimated that the rise is not per cent. lower than the peak figure reached during the war which was 162 per cent. The present figure is 145 per cent., a 17 per cent. drop. It is estimated that the figure in 1921 and 1922 was 162 per cent. and 160 per cent. respectively.

Best prices have been reached from 160 per cent. during the war to 162 per cent. and hence are but 2 per cent. above the pre-war level. Fuel and lighting are still "up" in the charts. The April 1922 figure being 218 per cent. House furnishings are a close second with 214 per cent. Farm implements have dropped from the war level—222 per cent.—to 175 per cent. for April.

Taken as a whole, these figures show a healthy downward trend, although in some instances, the sluggish movement is perplexing. The situation in Canada is of course, not normal, but it will right itself if not impeded. Constructive effort on the part of the government has been more conspicuous during the past four years. Perhaps with properly trained and experienced men at the helm of the Ship of State, the goal of "normalcy" can be more quickly attained.

PRESS OPINIONS

WHAT A SEA IS NOT FOR (Manchester Guardian)
A man of glory is all very well, but one must take care not to get drowned in it.

THE NEW POLICEMAN

(Brooklyn Eagle)
France cannot escape responsibility for what happens in the Ruhr while she maintains her dictatorial rule over the district. The police and drivers out the barometer must be at least present order.

TWO STEPS FORWARD

(Belleville Chronicle)
Labor and the country at large will be at least credit the House Labor Department with having reduced national expenditures by a hundred millions and with having fixed a basis for the payment of the great debt to America which Britain incurred for the sake of justice and freedom.

NURSING AS A PROFESSION

(Ottawa Citizen)
Today nursing is the second most popular profession for American women. There are 12,000 graduates expected in the work, more than 60,000 preparing for it in training schools. These students outnumber the students in all the medical colleges and the women students in all the American colleges. Only a few days ago the news of nursing was still more slowly being by the announcement of Yale University's plan for establishing a nursing school.

THE BURDENED PILLOW

(London Times)
Lord Mervin has said of Wolpe that he was a "great sleeper," but there are never have been any Portenarians who was less likely to be caught napping. There is indeed, for a politician and statesman alike, so clear a distinction between the arts of sleep and waking that to continue them in to coast disaster.

THE RURAL EXODUS

(Montreal Star)
Statistics show that many of our citizens are leaving us for the United States. It is not enough to fill their places, we must also improve local conditions in order to keep those who replace them. A proportion of those who are coming to us is in response to the call of the towns.

We must see to it therefore that work is plentiful in our Canadian towns. It is not enough to fill their places, we must also improve local conditions in order to keep those who replace them. A proportion of those who are coming to us is in response to the call of the towns.

BACK TO THE TOWNS

(The York Herald)
The Jersey City politicians have organized the job to go back to the towns.

brothering is to lose with the times. Justly Macks, he might be remarked as to be profitable as patrolling a ship, and about that he becomes. Very, indeed, should a man say a policy here at $2,000 a year while a one make $1,000 as a mascot? A policy here at $2,000 a year while a one make $1,000 as a mascot?

The search for "King Ben" of House of David fame, has been vigorously moved. Unfortunately, the author line can't by his hands on "King Ben" who he does as is the case with "King Ben". In other respects, the careers of the two persons, although for the relations of the age, are startlingly similar.

The Hamilton paper, who was admonished by the church conference, is evidently too firm in his expression. Frankness is a virtue in religious work, but when the practice is followed too zealously leads to complications as to results.

One would think that the denigrate in the case of which "Hanson" Mayor Bennett used for damage to his home, would be guilty of much malice.

Wit and Humor

WONDERING WHEN HE GOT IT.
"Do you believe in the action that if a man's ears are not somebody is taking about him?"
"No, it's far more likely somebody is talking about him if his nose is in it."

Interpret Eyes—Most eyes are imperfectly shaped. Some are too long, some too short, while others have irregularities of curvature which make focusing impossible or difficult.

Such conditions are known as Short Sight (Myopia), Long Sight (Hyperopia), and Astigmatism.

Glasses for these defects take the form of the exact strength to overcome the deficiency in vision.

This is why a Careful, Scientific Examination is necessary to determine the exact nature of the defect.

Most of us give our eyes little consideration

We work them to the limit every day, but we give them little consideration. We should take better care of our eyes.

Our eyes determine what we see, and they are the most important part of our body.

ARRELS

(By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Sports Editor)
New York, June 11.—The factor on the part of sport stars who are in the habit of making winning teams is to be in the "right" place at the "right" time.
"I am not that to be beaten, because I am a 'beater'," hung on the walls of the Princeton club house last night, and it inspired the Princeton football team to go through a glorious season to a championship.
There may have been better teams in the past year than the Princeton team, but there were none with more spirit and more guts than the Princeton team.
The team can be applied to Harry Davis, the former American light heavyweight champion, beating as well as it is his "easy style" that enables him to beat middle-weight, light heavyweights and heavyweights.
Ours celebrated his "easy style" because he had the will to win and he had the qualifications to become successful in unbroken years. In the emotional rush of the Philadelphia Athletics toward the pennant in the American League this spring, the most recent example of the will to win has been provided.

The Athletics were a good young club last season, but they lacked the spirit and the will to win. When old Connie Mack directed the team, they were not the team they could win and they went out to win.

There is nothing as hard to do as a young ball club which thinks this.

The Boston Braves of 1916 and the Cincinnati Reds of 1919 are examples.

While the Athletics are looked upon as a dangerous contender, in Philadelphia they are not the team.

Philadelphia is a baseball city. It is like Cincinnati of 1890 and Cleveland of 1920. The Athletics were a good young club last season, but they lacked the spirit and the will to win.

TRUNKS DOWNED BY PETERBORO, 8-4

Scattered Bingles and Off-Base Hits for Williams Lost Game

A few costly and noticeable bingles and a slightly off day for pitcher Jack Williams, were the contributing factors in the loss at Peterboro. On Saturday afternoon the Central Ontario Greyhounds, for the third time, defeated the Peterboro team. Williams, for the third time, was the losing pitcher. The game was a close one, with the Peterboro team leading in the eighth inning, but the Central Ontario team won in the ninth.

BROTHERS BARRED BY A.A.U. ORDER

Bart and Hugh Cummins Cannot Play at Twelfth United July

Lindsey, June 11.—Bart and Hugh Cummins, who last year played with the Lindsay Greybirds, and are this season at Twos, have been ordered to stop playing. The Amateur Athletic Union of Canada has ordered that they refrain from playing with Twos until July 1st. This appears to be a hardship in the Cummins brothers, especially on Hugh, the third baseman. Both went to Twos where they secured good positions, and Hugh was in Twos' position on the qualifying time. It is hard to understand the action of the A.A.U. in this case. With Bart it is slightly different, but his is not the eyes of those who, a very

THE WORLD'S GREATEST SPECTACLE
It cost $3,000,000 and required two years time in the making.
25,000 people are in the cast, headed by Rita Jolivet.
Settings of stone and marble occupied a set of 10,000 square meters and were built under the direction of Armando Brasini architect of the Vatican.
It dazzles the eye as a spectacle; words are too weak for its description.

And against such an amazing background is set the story of an empress who sacrificed imperial power for the wealth of the world—who even loved a horse of many heads on the savagery of the Amazon as the man loved.

WEDDING BELLS

ROBERTS-CLARK
(Montgomery N. Y. Haver)

A very quiet wedding took place yesterday evening at 8 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. McCharg, 400 Moore street, Charleston, when their daughter, Miss Emily Clark, was united in marriage to Mr. E. B. Roberts, of Madison, by the Rev. J. C. Raymond, of the Second church.

The bride was beautifully attired in the costume in navy blue. Hair in waves as is the standard of the church which she belongs, but neatly styled and appropriate for the occasion. The groom was dressed in a very dark suit in full uniform of the Standard chess minister. Both were very attractive and were looked on with very respect. Miss Clark is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. McCharg, of Madison, who she ranks among the best and holds the highest esteem of the town in which she resides.

She is among those who know her. We all believe that she will be an efficient worker in the church with her good nature, which will be of very help to the church.

The choice fell on a minister of one who has been a faithful provider of the report and holds the highest esteem of the church as a minister. The bride and groom were very happy and were looked on with very respect.

PERSONAL

Charles and Mrs. Bradley of Lakeview, England, are the guests of Mr. C. M. Best, Friday at 10. They are sailing for Bristol on Saturday after having completed a tour of the world.

BEST HAVE EVER TAKEN

So says Mr. John Brooks, in describing relief he found in Dranco, the famous nasal remedy.

Mr. John Brooks, a well-known citizen of Charleston Street, Toronto, Canada, has written a letter in which he praises Dranco. Last night he said the wonderful medicine helped him.

"I have taken many things for asthma in my head, nose and throat without relief. I believe it was this condition that caused my asthma. I got in bed sleep. The food I ate would not agree with me and I was in my stomach, and I also had pain in my back and dry spells."

RHEUMATISM
Came to Live With Him at 14

At fourteen J. P. Brown got his first taste of actual and muscular rheumatism, and it stayed with him as a sufferer from it, until, of late, trouble came to him.

He tried many things, including a trip to hot springs, but nothing else seemed to help. He was unable to work and his trouble troubled him. He learned for himself that of rheumatic adjustment, and learned for himself that they do remove the cause and give nature a chance to express herself normally, and that nature has ability.

Mr. Brown says: AFTER THE FIRST ADJUSTMENT

"After the first adjustment I felt great relief from the pain along the pelvic region. Taking several courses of adjustments I can now say that I am now entirely free from pain. I can now sleep and sit at the desk and head and neck. I can now do much better than taking rheumatic adjustments. I would take any amount of money for the benefit already established."—J. P. Brown.

CUMMINGS-OSBOURNE

A pretty wedding took place at St. Michael's church this morning at 12:30 at which Rev. Father Kilken officiated. The bride was Miss Alice Cummings, daughter of this city, and the groom Mr. John Edward Cummings, son of this city.

The bride was charmingly dressed in white crepe with white ribbons and stockings, and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was assisted by Miss Marie Cummins, sister of the groom, who was assisted by Mr. James Cummins, a brother. The maid of honor was Miss Margaret Cummins and Miss Doris Allen.

After the wedding the party assembled at the home of Mrs. Cummins where a dainty lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings left for the west on the noon train. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts, showing the esteem in which she is held.

Who Owns This Car?

When the motor car, driven by Percy Jones, of Belleville, broke down near Niagara on Monday last, he does the machine into a farmer's land, and left it there. When he returned to the farm on Wednesday evening with a truck to tow the machine home, the farmer claimed ownership of the car, as Jones alleged, and refused to surrender it.

An effort will be made today to take the car, with police assistance.

The Eight Cylinder Sedan $3100.
Delivered at Belleville, including Government Tax.

The Only "Eight" of its Kind in Value, in Size, in Price

The Oldsmobile Eight-Cylinder Sedan combines a degree of beauty, comfort and mechanical excellence usually found only in the costliest cars.

Its rich upholstery, its durable, soft-toned mohair plush over interlaced hair, and the incomparable Marshall-type springs insure thorough comfort. People comment on the fact that the interior affords more room than cars of equal wheel base. The equipment includes heater, dome and corner lamps, satin silver-finished interior hardware, certain and silent window-lifting device, sun visor, coat ventilator, locks on all four doors, walnut steering wheel, rear view mirror, window lifters and shades, windshield wiper, beautiful walnut-finish instrument board with symmetrical grouping of nickle-plated instruments.

The eight-cylinder motor of this high-grade sedan is powerful, flexible, smooth-running and vibrationless—a power plant in every way using a car so unusually good. We invite your judgment of this sedan from any standpoint, confident that for beauty, comfort, utility or performance, it has no equal at any where near the price.

Can Take Ink Out Of Newspapers, Claim

By HERBERT LITZLE,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Milwaukee, Wis., June 15.—(United Press.)—A Milwaukee newspaperman, a young man born out of a motor truck in front of your door, and grows up with a verdict of the "Any Rag, Any Bottle," does not surprise.

"Any Rag, Any Bottle" today is recognized by the most expert experts to be one of the everyday, common places of the citizen and one of the biggest factors in conserving the country's forests.

A commercial process of removing ink from newspapers, making the paper available for being made into easily available stock for the gigantic newspaper-making industry of the nation, while the developing of the United States Federal process of lumber here, has provided a simple and practical after experiment extending over a year, according to claims made by employees.

A saving of $15 a ton in making newspaper was effected on one lot through removing the ink from newsprint by the new process, and making the paper over into newsprint again. The process can be repeated over and over again.

The new process of removing newsprint paper has been used only in the

Mr. Harry Batesman and baby of 30 Albion street, are visiting friends in Niagara Falls.

Consistable aid in the problem of saving the diminishing forests of the country from the increasing demands of the newspapers is expected through the process, which has been hailed by publishers as the most important to publishers since the invention of the typewriter.

The process is simple. It consists of washing out, with soap, of the old newspapers in a solution of benzoline, a clay found in Wyoming, which contains a solution of benzoline, by the research experts of the government forestry service. The amount used as a heavy duty by beauty parlors in producing a ton of newspaper from old newspapers costs $2.50.

In one typical papermill, the total cost for a lot of newspaper produced from pulped news is $25; the cost for a ton produced from de-pulped news, $25.

From 2,500 pounds of newspapers 2,000 pounds of newsprint can be produced.

The city of Chicago, if this process were put into effect, is estimated that 338 tons of used newspapers would be collected and that only 250 tons of newsprint would be produced ready for use.

The ink loosened from the paper when put in soak by the addition of soda ash. This alkaline loosens the ink and the benzoline attracts and attaches the ink masses, which are then washed away.

The newspapers would have to be collected from readers, mostly in the form of printed matter, and then carried to the water-paper machine.

Such a quantity of newspaper could be carried out most economically by collecting the waste from the source of demand and supply, eliminating middlemen and making $10.00 of the water-paper machine.

Therefore, any process for taking ink out of newspaper weakened the fibre of the paper, rendering it only available for coarse wrapping paper or cardboard.

CONSERVATIVE VICTORY MEANS ECONOMY AND PROGRESS

HON. G. HOWARD FERGUSON WELL QUALIFIED TO LEAD HIS PARTY

Conservative Leader Has Splendid Record of Achievement as Public Servant

Hon. George Howard Ferguson, leader of the Conservative party in Ontario, was his place as the most able member of the Legislature. From the time he was asked to assume temporary leadership in the assembly, he distinguished himself by his high and representative character. In the fall of 1918, after a few weeks' absence, when on the staff of the House he found Ferguson, he had continued his career. Mr. Ferguson has been a public servant and a public leader. The quality that he brought to bear on the responsibilities of leadership are those that stamped him as a man who is fit to fill the traditions of the Liberal-Conservative party in Canada and to restore that party to its rightful place in the management of the affairs of the country.

HON. G. HOWARD FERGUSON, K.C., M.P.

Mr. Ferguson's true greatness shows itself in the hour of adversity. In 1911 those who sat around him realized that he had a firm grip on the situation, and was as competent to fight a two-day session as to prepare plans for the offensive campaign which would surely follow.

From about a month after the election, Mr. Ferguson did not reach this position by mere accident. Dr. Charles Palmer, Dr. Ferguson, his father, represented the riding of Christie in the House of Commons for 25 years. The son, therefore, was trained in the school of statesmen, and learned his political inspiration through the years when Canada was expanding into a nation.

George Howard Ferguson was born in Kemptville on June 18th, 1876. He was educated at Kemptville High School, Toronto University and at McGill Hall. In 1914 he was called to the bar.

During the early days of the golden era under the late Sir James Whitney when the whole of the Province of Ontario was representing the interests of a progressive business administration, Mr. Ferguson was called to the bar.

Another Example Of "Economy" Measures

The Government having increased the number of civil servants from 700 to 1500 required additional office room. The Old West Colony had been purchased by J. A. Mitchell for $100,000. The government purchased the building for a term of 10 years, instead of buying it. The rent for the first five years is $20,000 a year; for the second five years $25,000 a year; for the last five years $30,000 a year. The government also contracted to expend $30,000 on repairs and $10,000 on extensions. The government rents a building which cost the owner $100,000; they pay the rent, repairs, and extensions $75,000; they also pay taxes during the ten years. This is an example of the way the Drury government squanders the people's money. Put them out in the street of economy.

'OPPONES PARTY CAUCUS'

Former Drury denounced the party caucus. Yet Drury has held more caucuses than any previous administration and more than Liberals and Conservatives combined since he came into office.

STAFF INCREASED

The Drury Government increased the cost of the permanent staff of civil servants from 700 to 1,500, and in addition employs over 300 temporary help.

CONTRACT FOR MARKERS

Hon. F. C. Gair gave the contract for 1923 automobile markers to the Canadian Cattle Co., Limited, under conditions that prevented public competition. They paid the highest price and the loss to the Province is $20,000.

NOTES

QUARTER MILLION IN FEES Over a quarter of a million dollars has been paid in fees to lawyers friends of the Government by Drury.

LOUNGING ROOM The people of Ontario paid $740.50 to furnish a lounging room for Hon. H. H. Grant, Minister of Education.

MOTOR FLEET The Drury Government maintains fleet of 250 new vehicles. In 1923 the Province got about 20 cars and 4 trucks.

DOHERTY'S APARTMENT The people of Ontario paid $481.50 to furnish an apartment for Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture.

SPEND $2,000 The Drury Gov. cannot have cost the people of Ontario over $2,000,000 in expediting lawyers, commissions and official papers to do work that the Ministers are paid to do.

$2,000,000 INTEREST The Provincial Treasury borrowed money at 6 per cent. to buy in 3%, and 4% per cent. bonds that were not due. This cost the people $20,000,000 in interest a year, and in 20 years will amount to $2,000,000.

COST DOUBLED In 1919 the ordinary expenditure of Ontario was $10,000,000. For 1923 the ordinary expenditure will be approximately $20,000,000. In three and one-half years the cost of government has been doubled by Drury and Hanes. This extra $10,000,000 must be made up by taxation.

Language And Conduct Of 'Shirker' Is Revealed

Attorney-General Hanes' statements of defence in the Legislature on the subject of the "Last Night" party was the evidence of a shirker. Hon. Mr. Hanes' course in dealing or failing to deal with the "Wine, Women and Song" was the course of a shirker. Hon. Mr. Hanes' policy of delay to avoid political and personal embarrassment.

The Attorney-General now shows the consequences of his conduct by informing the members of the Legislature that he has no more to say on the subject of the party. He is ashamed to be asked to appear on the performance of his duty.

Hon. Mr. Hanes seeks to cover the blame for his inactivity on the members of the House and shield himself behind their incapacity to investigate their edginess. His latest action cannot be described otherwise than as "tricky."

ALONE MORE FOR UPKEEP

The members of the Drury Government demanded the cost of maintaining Government House. They are spending $4,000 more a year for the upkeep of Government House than any previous administration.

$4,000 TO EATON

The Drury Government gave the estate of the late Sir John Eaton $4,000 to pay for the upkeep of Government House, which was not due there. This was done to show the people that the Government was living within its income.

Through injudicious favouring the Provincial Treasurer forced the gift of succession duty free certificates to 30 points.

W. H. IRELAND, MAKES FIGHT FOR RE-ELECTION UPON HIS RECORD

Conservative Candidate in West Hastings Justifies His Appeal for Support

Mr. W. H. Ireland, Conservative candidate in the West Hastings riding, is a native born son of a merchant he had become widely known in that district. He came prominently in political life. He was known as a man of marked capabilities and high character, and his moral standing had become a fact. He was recognized as one of the leaders of the community and enjoyed a keen interest in all matters that made for progress and public betterment.

Because of his services to the community in which he lived and because of the elevated light he exhibited in the civic activities in which he engaged, his election as a member of the Provincial House was not a logical thing.

Upon his induction into office, Mr. Ireland did not deviate in the slightest degree from the policies which had gained for him the respect and confidence of the people of his community. He was elected on a Conservative platform, and he was not to be adhered strictly to the tenets of the Conservative party.

He was more, however, a man of expression for his party. He was truly a man of service, a constituency in the sense intended by the founders of Ontario's legislative system. During his service as M.P., Mr. Ireland faithfully championed the interests of his constituency. No matter was too trivial or too remote was too difficult for the West Hastings member. He acted without hesitation whenever it was his duty to do so, and the record of his service to the House gave him all the more of credit. Mr. West Hastings pointed materially as a result of his constituency.

W. H. IRELAND, M.P., Conservative Candidate in West Hastings.

Moreover, the Conservative candidate did not confine his activities as a member to furtherance of the interests of constituents of Government House. (Continued on page eight)

DRURY, PROUD OF BACKUS DEAL, TELLS PUBLIC

U. F. O. Government Head Seeks Support of People Despite Colossal Offense Associated in Gigantic Transaction With African Millionaire

The controversy arising from the passage of the Lake of the Woods Contract Bill by the Dominion Government has been a sharp trial for the attorney, transaction manipulated by the Drury Government and its allies as the "Backus Deal."

A brief review of that case here will serve to refresh the memories of the readers of this paper, and to make any false impressions which may have been received as a result of hearing the "explanation" by government spokesmen.

E. W. Backus is a Minneapolis millionaire. He has been in the business of securing the timber and pulpwood industry in north-western Ontario that he holds in Minnesota. With the help of the Drury Government he has been able to secure for himself, and at his own price, an empire of timber lands which gives him control not only of practically the entire timber and pulpwood industry, but makes him industrial dictator of the whole of that part of the Province between Lake Superior and the Lake Huron boundary.

He owns and controls, with his associates, the water power privileges of the whole of the Lake of the Woods, together with the only two dams in the Province at Kenora and the exclusive privilege of having power plants there. He controls the water power rights in the Lake of the Woods district. He also, in conjunction with others, owns the water power plant at Fort Frances, with water power and timber privileges covering an enormous area, which gives him complete control of the pulp and paper industry in that immense district.

He succeeded in getting the Drury Government to enter into a contract with the Backus family, which gave them control of additional water power on the Winnipeg River, and the right to build a dam at Kenora, and, pursuant to a condition thereof, the Drury Government called for tenders for the English River Timber Limit, comprising over three thousand square miles and Mr. Backus was awarded the limit for the price of $100,000 slightly over $100,000 plus the ordinary timber limit. It is seriously alleged that Backus, having acquired the water power of Lake Dog Rapids and being in control of the water power rights at Kenora, was the only party who could successfully utilize the English River Timber Limit, and that, therefore, the call for tenders was nothing more than a ruse to force the sale of the timber limit to Mr. Backus and his associates, with the assistance of the Drury Government, now control an immense domain of what they are bound to become immensely wealthy, while all the Ontario Government and the Ontario people get out of it the paltry sum of $100,000 plus the ordinary timber dues which are paid by every Ontario Timber Limit owner.

Moreover, the possession of White Dog Rapids by Mr. Backus, and his associates, for which he paid nothing to the Ontario Government, together with the possession of the two dams at Kenora, gave them the control of the waters of the Winnipeg River, and the right to build a dam at Kenora, and, pursuant to a condition thereof, the Drury Government called for tenders for the English River Timber Limit, comprising over three thousand square miles and Mr. Backus was awarded the limit for the price of $100,000 slightly over $100,000 plus the ordinary timber limit. It is seriously alleged that Backus, having acquired the water power of Lake Dog Rapids and being in control of the water power rights at Kenora, was the only party who could successfully utilize the English River Timber Limit, and that, therefore, the call for tenders was nothing more than a ruse to force the sale of the timber limit to Mr. Backus and his associates, with the assistance of the Drury Government, now control an immense domain of what they are bound to become immensely wealthy, while all the Ontario Government and the Ontario people get out of it the paltry sum of $100,000 plus the ordinary timber dues which are paid by every Ontario Timber Limit owner.

Before it was too late the Official of the Water Power Branch of the Dominion Government, became aware of the facts, and regulations were started with the object of regulating the powers and privileges granted to the Backus crowd.

Since the English River limits were awarded to Backus the Drury Government has made a further agreement of 2,000 square miles of water power and timber lands, along the Selkirk River.

He advised the Goldwyn editorial department in the preparation of the comedy, and as his own suggestion of a large share in preparing the picture.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER.

McLAUGHLIN MOTOR CAR CO.'S LIMITED SALE OF USED CARS A GREAT SUCCESS

Under the efficient management of Major Leslie W. Pratt, the local agent and branch of the McLaughlin Motor Car Co., Ltd., of Ottawa, Ont., they have been successful in the selling of good used automobiles at the sale now in progress, that they may well be proud to with great pride.

It has become an established fact that the Auto Dealer of today must investigate his stock rapidly upon the same basis as is every other of the merchandise of the world so as to be up to the mark at the end of the year.

In view of this fact, each branch of the McLaughlin Motor Car Co., Ltd., in which there are several in the larger cities in Canada, are convinced that the first sale produced nearly half the cash business that the Toronto branch did on their opening sale. This was thoroughly demonstrated by the fact that the business was so large that the city of Belleville with that of the numerous buyers from the surrounding country, who success achieved here is little short of a revelation.

The faith of the buying public in McLaughlin Motor Cars, the intelligent management of the organization by Manager Pratt, and the quality of the cars, which are being sold, are factors that should produce an optimistic spirit in every merchant who deals in automobiles. It is a pity of many of the high quality and that disappear in the market.

This can be done through direct advertising. That the McLaughlin Motor Car Co., Ltd., of Belleville, Ont., is a success in the marketing of used automobiles.

UNION BANK OF CANADA

The Directors of the Union Bank of Canada announce that a revelation of the assets of the Banks has been made and that it has been decided to transfer $4,800,000 from the account to Contingent Reserve Account and to reduce the rate of dividend to shareholders to eight per cent. per annum. The capital of the Bank stands at $8,000,000. Res. Account, $1,500,000. Profit and Loss, $180,000. In making this revelation the Bank has had the benefit of the latest returns and accounts of a high officer of the Bank of Montreal for the purpose. The transfer of the above amount from Res. Account to Contingent Reserve Account is due to writing down assets which were found to have depreciated owing to the heavy depletion and depressed business conditions recently experienced and has been pending owing to abnormal conditions. Large amounts of these assets so dealt with are to be expected, but in the meantime they are being placed in Contingent Reserve Account. The Board of Directors have been strengthened by the addition of Mr. R. T. Whyte, a former Vice-President of the Bank, who is well known throughout Canada. The Directors give the assurance that the Bank is in a sound position and that there is every promise of a successful and profitable future for it.

By order of Directors,
W. R. ALLAN, President.

MANY HIGH BOWERS ARE SHOWN
"THE NEW PICTURE"

Marion Davies, Mrs. "Adams and Company"
Orestes

Looking at the latest fashions and selecting apparel at the same time as the well-known actors, the new picture was the pleasant task assigned Marion Davies, who, while making her Paramount Company picture, "Adams and Company," a really society girl, Miss Davies gave sleeping and beautiful models, who also had given a splendid dress parade, display the most stunning costumes.

Most of the models are regularly engaged in that capacity in smart Fifth Avenue stores and they thereby enjoyed their excursion into provincial. Miss Davies was so pleased with a couple of the gowns worn that she bought them as soon as the dress was completed.

"Adams and Co." was adapted to the screen from the successful stage comedy written by Gay Boswell and George Middleton. While quite a change from her previous picture, "How Knightrid was in Five," which secured such a record, Miss Davies gave graciously from the royal robes of Princess "Eva," the story concerns a society girl who becomes manager of a firm in order to retrieve the family fortunes. T. Roy Barnes is leading man in "Adams and Co.," which will be the feature at Griffith's theatre to Wednesday.

The many belletrists of Little and Dorothy Clark will be pleased to hear that they are appearing on the same program in a gripping drama entitled "Sisters." The "Sisters," daughter of those popular Larry Birney comedies, and the New York "Sisters" are now appearing on presentation on the same program.

The theatrical election picture will be accompanied every fifteen minutes at Griffith's theatre.

WHERE IS MY WANDERING BOY TONIGHT? FEATURE OPENING AT REGENT THEATRE

Some people say that the movies are purely mechanical and that they get very little out of them other than pictures. Those folks have something common when they see the terrific London smash between the two lovers, who are shown in the same long love scenes that takes place in the full delivery scene of "My Wandering Boy Tonight," which is the feature attraction at the Regent theatre tonight.

Kingston Sport Scribe "Comes Out in Bloom"

At last the Kingston Standard sport writer has "come out in bloom" in connection with the defeat of Belleville last Wednesday. He says:

The Belleville Intelligence is "up in the air" because the Belleville team who came down for the game last Monday had to pay their way to walk because the hotel of Belleville was not licensed. The sport writer was thus forced to give the impression that the passes were those offered issued by the C.O.B.L. The next thing The Intelligence will be wanting will be for Belleville to be granted for the Belleville fans and a free gift of the game to his town's team. It may also be asking for free meals. Might as well make it a day when you're "in it," wouldn't it?

Of course it was up to Kingston to put in some kind of defence, help as it was bound to be. In the first place, the writer of the above comment is absolutely wrong on the facts. In the first instance, there has not been "hundreds of people" taken to Belleville fans by the Belleville Baseball Club. In the second place, he does not know who has paid the hotel bill and amount of Belleville's trip.

Persons in getting his proudest allusion to "N.Y. towns have been" and a "scurry race" in a sporting connection. What's what J. J. saw in the distance?

It will be a long time before Upright Colling will be called on to make a Belleville in the end when he very easily watched an easy victory. If a triple says the Kingston Standard in the end when he very easily watched an easy victory. If a triple says the Kingston Standard in the end when he very easily watched an easy victory.

Try and get someone to write music for you, young.

Sporting Skits

Kingston sporting writers, players and fans are highly interested over Jake Solomon's plan to allow a runner to be chased by Peterson to please W. Evans in the seventh inning. Solomon was strongly condemned by both Peterson and Kingston fans alike. Previous to this when Peterson was injured at the "cheerful" place and down the boy who had scored Peterson's only run for a few minutes before was the boy ejected by Solomon.

Bateman selected a runner but fortunately Jake was on the fact with a perfect. He intended that Moore run for Evans. The Kingston players turned to the "runner" in despair and informed them that Evans would do his own running.

At the game in Kingston last Wednesday the devoted Anselm repeated himself on the table on at least three different occasions without a word of protest from Kingston fans.

Jake certainly did not help himself any by his conduct in number of the Peterson fans and players did not show Solomon's feelings. It was indeed a high handed action and an amount of apology is hardly in order.

The umpire's and town's group "S" is maintaining this ground "S" starting minor on time. The first ball was thrown up at three o'clock, around time, as a matter of fact. The last one around the park at 145 and into the intervening time 10:30 was much and baselard crowd.

The Belleville Advertiser is making a very hostile impression on Kingston fans. Peterson fans and players by his merry device. Good bye!

Solomon was everyone all afternoon over the balls which were being sent over the fence by the fans. After the game he had lost over 145 out of a down. "He cost two lunks apiece," said "Jake."

Jake always was an economical sort of a fellow.

MOXAM—In loving memory of our dear Ben and Brother, James Albert Moxam, who departed this life, June 20th, 1923, in Crosse Living Hospital, Syracuse, N.Y.

There is someone who misses you and is finding the time long since you went.

There is some one who thinks of you daily, who tries to be brave and content. I wish you to be at ease. And breathe a sigh of regret. For you were one we remember. If all the world forgets. Sincerely yours, by Mother, Father, Sisters and Brothers. 27161

THE POWER OF SUGGESTION

Travelling has become more and more a fine art. Formerly it was regarded simply as a process of getting from one place to another, without any thought of the journey itself. Now it is looked upon as a joyful undertaking. A delightful holiday in the quietest of life, especially when the journey is over the lines of the Canadian National Railway. The service is so good, the service is so good, the service is so good. The service is so good, the service is so good, the service is so good.

Since 1915 we have had an arrangement with the United States Postal Administration which unites the two countries, especially in the postal territory, and the Postal Conference with officials of that administration which was held at Ottawa last fall celebrated forty-two years of mutual esteem and goodwill, and paved the way for still better co-operation between the two countries also made quite an advance when in 1918 Canada became a member of the Universal Postal Union, which now comprises practically all the countries of the world. Since that time she has been represented at all the Congresses of the Union, ranking as a first-class power.

This satisfactory co-operation therefore finds us, with much in which we citizens of this great Dominion, looking back on the progress made in the past years since our various provinces joined hands and fortunes, all may well find pride, and especially perhaps those of us who belong to the postal service, in view of the extent to which our service has contributed to the development of the country. Well, now, do you go on?

Mr. Trips folded the room with his small person, moving his hand with a heroic backward, handclenching, and bowing a cheerful protest against the executive hand.

Patrick looked up from her work and groaned like a man.

He collapsed heavily on a chair, which he occupied, obviously beneath his weight.

"When you're staidy in the world, there is no lack of variety in the sun," he said, laughing happily

at his joke.

"How you must be quiet and be good," admonished Patrick. "I'm not a child."

"But with what?" demanded Mr.

Trips, awaiting the promise of being himself with his handclenching.

"The potato-baked," explained

Patrick, "there is no lack of variety in the life of an M.P.'s secretary; habits and tortois, pigs and potatoes, is most and marriage, they all have their allotted place."

"Arthur works you too 'art. me

"I must speak to 'im about 'it."

"Oh, Mr. Trips? You mustn't do must do what he wants."

"But a more than a job."
